6. Nebraska adults have one of the highest the highest participation rate in the U.S. in annually attending an art exhibit or arts performance. Is there a specific arts or culture organization in your part of the state that you or your family particularly enjoy, or do you have an artistic talent or hobby?

- Yes
- No

If yes, please list your talent/hobby and your favorite organization(s) here:

Talents/Hobbies: Color Photography, nature and landscape photography.

As far as organizations, the Nebraska Schools Activities Association (NSAA) does well with state speech and one act plays competition.

We welcome any additional comments or experiences you would like to make with regards to the arts in Nebraska. Please use the space below. Your comments will be posted on the Nebraskans for the Arts website.

Perhaps the arts could be applied to rural town revitalization projects.

If you would like additional information about the participating organizations, please contact NFTA Executive Director Petra Wahlqvist (402.817.8176, petra@nebraskansforthearts.org) or view the following websites:
